

Sample Social Media Posts

Tips for Sharing the Sample Social Media

Share the below social media posts on your Facebook or Twitter accounts to build awareness in your tribal community about the issue of human trafficking. The posts link to videos and information about signs a loved one may be experiencing human trafficking.

Feel free to customize this sample text to your audience, including tailoring the hashtags. If you plan to share these posts throughout January for National Human Trafficking Prevention month, creating a calendar to schedule a date for each post can be helpful.

If you have additional questions about how to use this sample text or create customized human trafficking awareness information and outreach materials, contact the Human Trafficking Capacity Building Center at contact@ovc-htcbc.org or 1-844-682-0411.

Facebook

Post 1

The signs or indicators of human trafficking may be difficult to spot from the outside. We must care for one another and help our community members heal. Watch and share this short video <https://bit.ly/3JczE8H> to increase awareness about human trafficking. If you need help or know someone who does, call 888-373-7888 – the National Human Trafficking Hotline.

Post 2

January is National Human Trafficking Prevention Month. We can support and honor relatives and community members who are victims and survivors of human trafficking by learning more about the issue. Watch and share this short video <https://bit.ly/3yNHWPz>. If you need help or know someone who does, call 888-373-7888 – the National Human Trafficking Hotline.

Post 3

Signs of labor trafficking can be subtle. A loved one may not be able to come and go as they please, are paid very little or only through tips, or suffer under unusual restrictions at work; they may not be free to make their own basic life choices. Watch this video to learn more <https://bit.ly/32nTsVY>. If you need help or know someone who does, call 888-373-7888 – the National Human Trafficking Hotline.

Post 4

Victims of labor trafficking often have limited freedom, lack control of their money, identification documents, and bank accounts, and work in dangerous environments. Learn the signs <https://bit.ly/3EhdCOG>. Recognizing signs of labor trafficking is the first step in identifying and supporting victims in healing.

Post 5

Did you know that a disproportionate share of women who are victims of sex trafficking identify as American Indian, Alaska Native, or First Nations? It is important to support our relatives and community members who are victims and survivors of human trafficking. Share this short video <https://bit.ly/3so599X> to help increase awareness about human trafficking. If you need help or know someone who does, call 888-373-7888 – the National Human Trafficking Hotline.

Post 6

It can be difficult to talk about human trafficking. Our long history of cultural oppression and historic trauma has contributed to a culture of silence seen in many tribal communities today; but we need to talk about it. We need to look after one another, it is part of our cultural traditions. Watch and share this short video <https://bit.ly/30MJPO2> to help increase awareness about human trafficking. If you need help or know someone who does, call 888-373-7888 – the National Human Trafficking Hotline.

Twitter

Tweet 1

January is National Human Trafficking Prevention Month. Support and honor relatives and community members who are #victims and #survivors of #humantrafficking. Watch and share this video <https://bit.ly/3qfls6r>.

Tweet 2

#HumanTrafficking impacts Indigenous people more than most of us realize. Traffickers prey on our vulnerabilities, exploiting loved ones. Need help? Call 888-373-7888 – the National Human Trafficking Hotline.

Tweet 3

Did you know that a disproportionate share of women who are victims of #sextrafficking identify as American Indian, Alaska Native, or First Nations? <https://www.ncai.org/policy-research-center/research-data/prc-publications/TraffickingBrief.pdf> Need help? Call 888-373-7888 – the National Human Trafficking Hotline. #endhumantrafficking

Tweet 4

It is important to support our relatives and community members who experiencing #humantrafficking. Watch and share <https://bit.ly/3FhSE3j>. Need help? Call 888-373-7888 – the National Human Trafficking Hotline.

Tweet 5

It can be difficult to talk about #humantrafficking. Historic #trauma has contributed to a culture of silence; but we need to talk about it and look after one another. Need help? Call 888-373-7888 – the National Human Trafficking Hotline. #endhumantrafficking

Tweet 6

Several human trafficking factors appear to correlate with #mmiwg. Learn more about how you can help family and community members experiencing #humantrafficking heal. <https://bit.ly/3stPh5M>.

Tweet 7

Get free #humantrafficking resources at <https://htcbc.ovc.ojp.gov/>. Email Contact@ovc-htcbc.org to receive no-cost coaching and resources to start, sustain, or grow your organization's #humantrafficking work.